1. About the Book

The Treehouse Pals is a full-color graphic novel written by 11-year-old Parker Stolaronek from Griswold, Connecticut. Inspired by Dog Man and Cat Kid Comic Club, Parker created an original story featuring four unforgettable characters:

- Remy – A pizza-loving robot
- Chuck – Loud but not exactly the sharpest
- Bun Bun – The smart one
- Flippy – A dolphin in a wheelchair

Parker spent countless evenings writing and drawing at his desk, determined to make his dream of publishing a real book come true. The Treehouse Pals is available in hardcover, softcover, and Kindle on Amazon.

2. About the Author

Parker Stolaronek is an 11-year-old sixth grader at Griswold Middle School in Griswold, CT. A naturally creative force, Parker has written and illustrated over 40 original books by hand—many of them stapled together using copy paper.

When he discovered Dog Man by Dav Pilkey, something clicked. He began experimenting with comic book layouts, building storylines, and pushing his ideas further. After months of late-night writing sessions and homemade drafts, Parker told his dad, “I want to make a real book.”

Together, they made it happen. When the sample copy arrived in the mail, Parker couldn’t stop smiling. The Treehouse Pals became more than just a book—it became a symbol of Parker’s determination and imagination.

Beyond writing, Parker is a true creator. He builds characters out of foam, crochets, draws, paints, mimics the style of his favorite artist Keith Haring, and even produces plushie shows for YouTube. He’s also known to spend hours outside, inventing elaborate imaginary worlds while walking around with his favorite Stormtrooper action figure.
